

Erasmus+ w Cluj- Napoca

Anna Cholewa, Ewa Dąbrowska,
Ewelina Derewońko, Beata
Wrońska

Salut!

We are taking you on a journey through Romania!

We live in different and difficult times
now...

NEVER GIVE UP

... but veterinary medicine works
against all odds!

At the campus of university...

Online classes and assignments...

NAME AND SURNAME

Group

Date

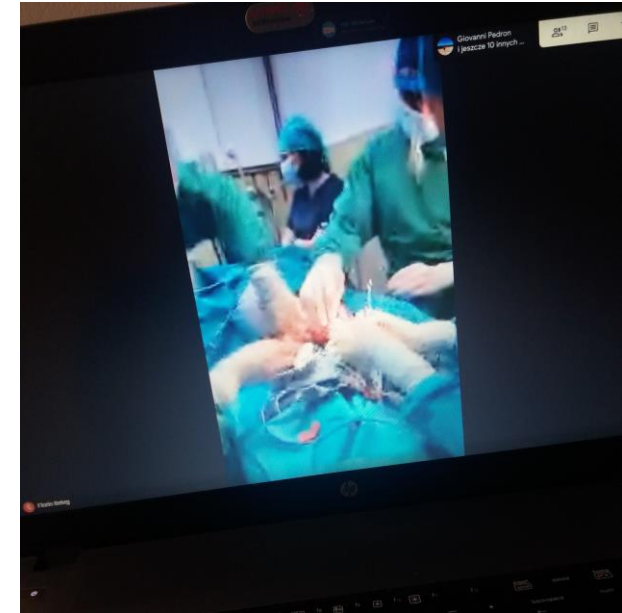

Case 1

Turkey farm: 7 weeks old trurkey broilers, high mortality (10%), diarrhea, innapaetence. Lesions identified to the necropsy – see the photos.

Clinical signs

Necropsy

A blue mobile cart with five drawers, each with a silver handle. The cart is topped with a white surface that holds various medical supplies, including a large clear plastic storage bin with multiple compartments, a small blue bottle, and other miscellaneous items. The cart is positioned in a room with light-colored tiled walls and a white desk in the background.

[illegible]

Acquiring new skills with a lovely helper!

A farm trip!
Yay!

Meet and greet... ;)

Oh, look!
A baby piggy
!

Night shift in the emergency unit!

Meet some of our patients:

TAR A

REGINE

BELLA

THOR

ZOMBI

NERO

JULLY

TOMMY

PROLAPSINA

Exotics clinic...

Fuh, that was a lot!

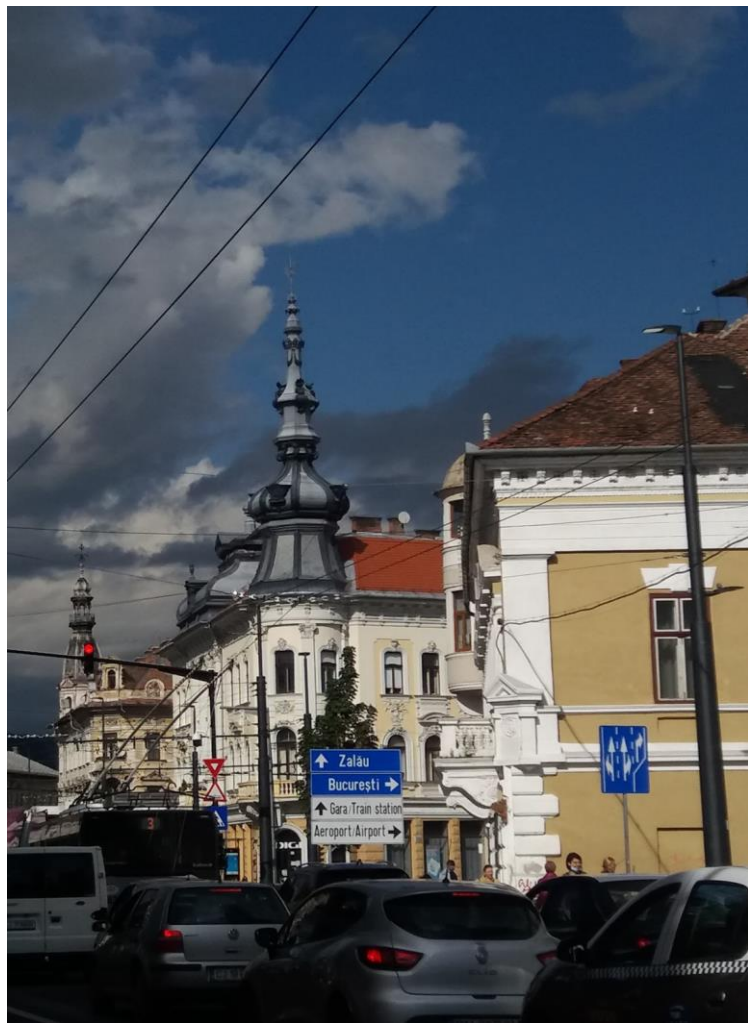

But there's more to our Erasmus experience.

Take a look at...

The beautiful city of Cluj-Napoca...

(this is the view from our flat!
wow!)

... and its surroundings!

A petting zoo - Wind Mill

Finally, a snowy winter! Hooray!

It's Christmas time!

We made ourselves right at home.
:)

We travelled a bit...

... and saw some interesting

Even a store can be interesting!

In Romania, you live to eat!

Some yummy zacusca with toast & papanasi for dessert...

Traditional placinta as a side dish.
Can't be all that healthy!

Grilled veggies with mushroom risotto
and a regular burger
- different dishes,
the same restaurant!

It's time to say our goodbye...

Detalles de la reunión ^

Presentar ahora

Thanks for everything, Cluj! See you later!

