 The Organizer reserves the right to change the declared limits of places depending on interest and the results of the evaluation of the received Application Forms, as well as the availability of the budget in the Project, while the total number of participants will not exceed 70 people and may be reduced only if, as a result of the supplementary recruitment referred to in §4 section 1 of the Regulations, or is not possible to recruit a sufficient number of candidates meeting the criteria.*

 This includes 2 days of travel. In justified cases, it is possible to apply for mobility lasting +/- 2 days from the planned number, while maintaining a range of 5-30 days, taking into account travel time, e.g., in the case of participation in a conference or other organized form of education with a strictly defined implementation date (e.g., summer/winter school, training).*
